REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As concern with claims 1, 3, 5-7, & 11-17, the prior art does not disclose or fairly suggest a metal based material comprising one or more metals having the claimed crystalline grain size, a crystallographic strain and in combination with having a high phase purity as recited in claim 1.

As concern with claims 18-20, the prior art does not disclose or fairly suggest a material formed by cavitation, comprising one or more metals having the claimed crystalline grain size and in combination with having a phase purity higher than that of the material formed by a classical co-precipitation synthesis as recited in claim 18.

As concern with claims 21-26, the prior art does not disclose or fairly suggest a metal based material comprising one or more metals having the claimed crystalline grain size, a crystallographic strain and in combination with having no secondary phase in its composition as recited in claim 21.

There is no motivation to combine the teachings of the references together.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
